INDUCTION INTO OFFICE

Of Taft, It Is Predicted, Will Surpass All

PREVIOUS LIKE FUNCTIONS

Great Court of Honor Eclipses Any thing Previously Produced, and Decorations in Ball Room Alone Cost Twenty Thousand Dollars.

Washington, March 1.—Preparations for the induction into the presidential office of Hon. William H. Taft have been completed and members of the various committees predict the ceremony on Thursday will be more brilliant than any previous inauguration. Predictions were made that the number of visitors who will come from every nook and corner of the United States will be a record breaker.

Work on the great court of honor, one of the most beautiful features of the inauguration, has received its finishing touches, and this focal point of the national function will produce a color and decorative scene which is said will eclipse all previous efforts in this direction.

The task of getting the pension offices in readiness for the inaugural ball will be finished in ample time. This brilliant social event is expected to be a scene of splendor, the committee having spent $20,000 for decorations alone.

Large crowds that had already arrived were augmented Monday by many more reaching the city on every incoming train. There was an influx of many organizations from different states.

SUICIDES ON BRIDGE.

Walks to Middle of Structure and Fires Bullet Into Head.

Pittsburg, March 1.—While a repair gang of carpenters worked on the Panhandle railroad bridge over Chartiers creek, West Carnegie, Mrs. Amanda L. Bradford, aged fifty years, of Glendale, walked coolly out to the middle of the structure and with a 32-caliber revolver shot herself above the right ear. She died at her home three hours later.

The workmen noticed the woman approach the bridge, but paid no attention until they were startled by the shot. The dying woman was carried to her home on the hill overlooking the creek and Dr. Robert L. Walker, Jr., was summoned. She never regained consciousness.

Mrs. Bradford is survived by her husband and three small children. No reason is assigned for the suicide.

NOBLE CHARITY OPENED.

State Knights of Pythias Home's First Inmates Four Winkles Orphans.

Weatherford, Tex., March 1.—The Texas Knights of Pythias home for widows and orphans were opened here Monday. It cost $250,000. Four orphans by the name of Winkler from Amarillo, were first received. The building is a splendid one and excellently fitted for the grand purpose for which it was erected.

NEW WEAPON UTILIZED.

Husband Fatally Assaults His Wife With Leg of Table.

Cleveland, O., March 1.—Because his wife refused to get out of bed and get him something to eat, Michael McManamon, thirty-five years old, Sunday night assaulted her with a table leg, it is charged, and fatally injured the woman. McManamon reached home at 10 o'clock and became enraged when he found his wife had retired.

Sues to Set Aside Will.

Weatherford, Tex., March 1.—Suit was filed here by Mrs. Bess Lanham, widow of the late E. M. Lanham, son of the former governor, to set aside the last will of E. M. Lanham, made shortly before his death. Her petition alleges he had an insane delusion regarding his wife. The property is valued at $30,000, most of which is left to two sons of the deceased.

Hurled From Pole.

Houston, March 1.—Bert Rhodes, a telephone lineman, was hurled from the top of a pole on Tyler street. He also received a severe shock. He was injured more by the fall than by the current, sustaining deep cuts on his head and face and sustaining a broken arm.

DALLASITES THANKED.

By Unanimous Vote Appreciative Resolutions Adopted.

Austin, March 1.—Shortly after the senate was called to order Monday morning the following resolutions, offered by Senator Perkins and twenty other senators, were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The members of the senate of Texas, together with those of the house, have had two days of splendid entertainment, being thus honored by the good people of Dallas, the great city of north Texas, who did not spare anything to make our visit one of pleasure and happiness; and

Whereas, As members of said body, we desire to testify our grateful hearts for the unexcelled hospitality and many kindnesses shown us and to express to each and every citizen of Dallas our deep appreciation of the many courtesies thus shown us; therefore be it Resolved, by the senate of Texas, That we hereby extend to Hon. S. J. Hay, mayor of Dallas, the chamber of commerce, L. O. Daniel, president; the committee of the chamber of commerce, H. H. Adams, chairman of entertainment committee, and through them to the splendid and enterprising citizenship of the great and growing city of Dallas, our most appreciative thanks for their generous kindness and hospitable entertainment while in their city, and that deep in our hearts we will ever cherish, with grateful remembrance, the two days spent in the great north Texas metropolis, and we further desire to congratulate the city of Dallas upon her many evidences of prosperity and progress, no city in the southwest having done more in past years, and when we were called upon to return to our home, the great granite capitol of Texas, we did so with reluctance, and hope some day to be able to return.

Resolved, further, That with one accord we express our high appreciation of unstinted and painstaking efforts of the able senator from Dallas, the Hon. E. G. Senter, in providing for our every pleasure and comfort.

Resolved, further, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the mayor of the city of Dallas, to Mr. H. H. Adams, chairman of the entertainment committee and to the president of the chamber of commerce, and that a copy be spread on the journal of this body and the press of the state be furnished copies for publication.

The signers are Perkins, Cofer, A. B. Davidson, lieutenant governor; Ward, Stokes, Murray, Hayter, Peeler, Brachfield, Holsey, Terrell (of McLennan), Real, Watson, Veale, Harper, Sturgeon, Paulus, Kellie, Hudspeth, Mayfield, Alexander, Adams, Terrell (of Bowie), Weinert, Bryan, Master, Greer and Meachum.

The senate finally passed the senate bill to fix the time for filing answers in all cases where defendant is cited by publication.

It next took up Senator Harper's bill, which seeks to permit members of the legislature or the governor to appoint and confirm relatives as notaries public, also to permit state officials to reappoint relatives to positions where such relative has been in service five years. Some opposition developed to the bill. It passed to engrossment.

The senate passed finally the sixteen hour railway bill, which prohibits engineers, etc., from working over sixteen consecutive hours. It also passed finally the senate bill consolidating the Wichita Valley railway lines. Senator Hudspeth introduced a bill providing for the establishment by the state of its own water and light plant to furnish all state institutions with power, light and water, and appropriating $250,000. The bill is to be pushed if the state cannot renew on a satisfactory basis the contract with Austin, which now furnishes these commodities to the state institutions.

Senator Cofer introduced a bill modifying the present railway employers' liability law. The bill is an exact copy of the federal employers' liability act.

Chairman Harper of judiciary No. 2, to whom the anti-race track bills were referred, said it would be Wednesday or Thursday before the report of the committee would be considered, as the bill is being printed.

Industrious Mill Girls Fight.

Marion, O., March 1.—Rival factions among 200 silk mill girls engaged in a fight in Prospect street on their way home from work. A score emerged from the battle with scratched faces and disheveled hair. A man who threatened to send in a riot alarm was severely beaten. The trouble started over a dispute as to which faction could weave the greater amount of silk.

CONTENTION OVER DOCTOR

Rather Unusual Proceeding Occurs During Trial.

Nashville, March 1.—Immediately after the Cooper-Sharp trial was resumed Monday Attorney Anderson asked that the jury be excluded and Dr. McPheeter Glasgow be called. When the doctor came in Judge Anderson said the defendants had been informed a few days after the burial of Carmack that an autopsy had been performed by Dr. Glasgow. "We asked Dr. Glasgow to tell us what he knows. He refused. He says he is personally willing, but had been instructed by the state not to talk. We ask that he be instructed to talk to us—not to volunteer information—but to answer questions." Then Attorney General McCann said: "We instructed Dr. Glasgow not to talk. We retained Dr. Glasgow to get certain facts for us. These facts defendants knew. They put those bullets into Carmack's body. They shot the bullets into the dead. They put them there and we did not. We have no living witness to that killing. The defense simply wants to know how much we know and we object to them trying to get at our evidence."

General Washington replied for the defense. He said when the state closed its case without using Glasgow the defense subpoenaed the doctor; that he was defense's witness and under rules of procedure the defense is entitled to know what information he has before putting him on the stand.

"This is the first time this question has been raised, said the court, 'and I instruct witness now that it is proper he should tell counsel if he has any information that could throw light on this affair.'"

"We understand then you do not order witness to talk to counsel for defense?"

"Not just now," said the court.

"We protest and will protest that the witness shall not be ordered to give information to the defense. We employed Dr. Glasgow in professional capacity, to aid us. We will have a great deal of testimony. We paid for his services and we maintain it is unjust to force us to give the defense information secured at our expense."

"I instruct the doctor," said Judge Hart, "that it is not improper now to talk, but it is proper to talk if he wishes."

"If they want to put Dr. Glasgow on the stand under oath, then all right. We are willing. But they have no right to try to find out just how much truth we know."

Dr. Glasgow withdrew from the courtroom with counsel for the defense and on their return again refused to talk unless instructed to do so by counsel for the state.

The state, after consultation, said: "We believe the court has no right to order Dr. Glasgow to talk, but if the defense pay us back what we paid for Dr. Glasgow's services, we will consent to their conferring with him."

The defense agreed to reimburse the state if they used the witness, but the state objecting. Attorney General McCann stated: "No, you won't; you reimburse us before you talk to the witness."

"Now you have gotten this dispute down to a commercial question of dollars and cents," interposed the court in a disgusted tone. "Defense's contentions it is wants to see the goods before it buys them. The state, however, wants to sell them in a bag."

"We had to buy them in a bag, your honor," said Attorney General McCann.

"I am very much ashamed of the whole transaction," said Judge Hart quietly to the press table, "but it is out of my jurisdiction. Counsel for state thereupon took possession of Dr. Glasgow, and retired for consultation with him."

Finally the defense called Dr. Glasgow. He said he performed the autopsy on Carmack's body at the request of Attorney General McCann, Nov. 17. "The grave had been opened and the body on a table stripped ready for the autopsy. I was assisted by Dr. Mohr. I had seen Carmack's body after death and found two wounds made by the undertaker after I seen it. These wounds were made in embalming."

There was one wound two inches below the left nipple and one inch to the inside. The bullets passed through the heart. Four and one-half inches below the right nipple and one inch outside was found from which one bullet had been taken. An inch from the left median line of the neck was another wound, which was black. The others were clean. A bullet came out of the mouth, two teeth being loosened and held by the lips only. The third wound entered the chest between the fourth and fifth rib, pierced the heart, wounded the ventricle and passed downward and forward through the liver and reached the skin between the sixth and seventh ribs. The bullet was cut out from beneath the skin. The defense excused the witness.

"We will not cross-examine now," said the state's counsel, "but we will reserve the right to do so later."

The defense wished a technical description of the wounds to prove its contention either one of them would have been instantly fatal. The defense believes it has established that Senator Carmack did fire two shots, and if he fired them he must have fired them before the shots of Robin Cooper fired entered his body.

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT.

Railroad Commission Gives Out a Number of Interesting Figures.

Austin, March 1.—The railroad commission has made public a comparative statement showing freight, passenger and gross earnings, operating expenses and income from operations of railroads in Texas for the six months ending Dec. 31, 1908.

The statement shows gross earnings for same period in 1907 to be $45,909,289 and in 1908 $48,007,045. Increase is $2,097,755, or 4.57 per cent. Operating expenses for same period of 1907 was $36,200,008; for 1908, $33,352,668. Decrease for 1908 is 7.87 per cent. During the same period freight earnings increased $2,361,459 or 7.44 per cent. Passenger earnings decreased $22,447 or 15.14 per cent. Income from operation increased $4,945,096.

This is a much better condition than heretofore.

Four Mexican Bandits Slain.

Guaymas, Sonora, March 1.—Captain Castulo de la Roucha, commanding the rurales in Mier district, reports the killing of four bandits and capturing of two others in a desperate fight in the mountains.

Judgment Affirmed.

Washington, March 1.—Judgment for $5,000 for George Powers of El Paso against the Santa Fe railroad was affirmed in the supreme court. Powers was injured riding on an engine pilot.

Frightful Descent to Death.

McAlester, Okla., March 1.—I. N. Denton, Al. McCormick and Mike Stuart were killed in a mine at Anderson by two cars getting away and running down a 400 foot incline.

Poor Lose Good Friend.

Akron, O., March 1.—"Uncle Joe" Kendall, eighty-one years old, is dead. For forty years he distributed a small fortune among the needy.

Run Down and Killed.

West Newton, Pa., March 1.—A negro named Blanche Butler was run down and killed by a train.

"LUCKY" BALDWIN DIES.

Veteran Turfman Reaches Four Score and One Before Summoned.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 1.—At Arcadia, on his ranch, after an illness of several weeks, E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin departed this life at 7 o'clock Monday morning, aged eighty-one years. For a great many years Mr. Baldwin was one of the leading authorities on race horses and turf matters generally. Despite his advanced age, he retained his interest in affairs of this character up to his last illness.

Johnson to Become a Lawyer.

Columbus, O., March 1.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland has officially notified the supreme court of his intention to become a lawyer. In his application he said that his preceptor is to be Newton Baker, city solicitor of Cleveland. He gave his age as fifty-four years, and claimed to possess the necessary qualifications to become a disciple of Blackstone.

A Persistent Hen.

Ever hear about our little red hen? Well, sir, she was on the set for keeps. Couldn't keep her off. Old doorknobs, soda bottles, lamp chimneys, match safes—anything was good enough for her. Finally I put her on three mud turtles, and I hope to die if she didn't hatch out alligators—yes, sir, three of 'em! One of 'em ate her up, and when we opened him there was the hen settin' on his back teeth, and they'd swelled up so they choked him to death.—Exchange.

Sunshine and Long Life.

Some towns on the Italian side of the Swiss Alps are noted for the great number of sunny days. Carabietta and Pentillino, near Lugano, head the list with 327 and 331 sunny days respectively in one year. Possibly because of this liberal amount of sunshine the percentage of old people is exceptionally high in the canton of Tessin, forty-four per thousand being over seventy years old and ten per thousand over eighty.—New York Post.

SOMETHING RADICALLY WRONG.

In the Cooper-Sharp trial twenty-five days were consumed in getting a jury, and this was done by exhausting six special venirees with a total of 3019 men. All were disqualified who had talked with anyone who had read a newspaper report of the killing of Carmack. As a consequence, four of the jurors can neither read nor write and two others understand only the simplest English sentences. All but one of the jurors swore that they had not read a newspaper since the killing and the single one who is accustomed to read had been out of the state from before the event till the day he was summoned. Thus it appears that of the twelve all but one are practically illiterate. Commemorating on these facts the Kansas City Journal says:

"And yet lawyers speak of their "learned profession" and deliver solemn addresses in annual banquets upon the advancement of the science of law. It is clearly manifest that there is something radically wrong with a system of jurisprudence which makes ignorance instead of intelligence the first qualification of a juror.
No amount of hair-splitting casuistry can excuse or defend the monstrous absurdity of a supreme court ruling which penalizes the reading of newspapers in this enlightened age when everybody who has any intelligence or education reads newspapers. Our entire legal system needs reformation.
Some brave judge ought to let in the light of ordinary common sense upon its musty precedents and cob-webbed brain twistings. Either that, or the lawyers in their bar associations should rise to the level of the ethical standards of their profession and appoint committees to revise the law and adjust it to the needs of modern society. The ethics of law prescribe that a lawyer shall be an officer of the court and that his first and foremost duty is to protect society.
As it is, the law, instead of being a rock of refuge for the oppressed, is in countless instances an instrument not of justice but of oppression to society."

Alexander Stephens is regarded by many as the greatest statesman of his time and that his failure to be universally appreciated was because he was a swinecat. May be that is what is the matter with Senator Senter of Dallas.

"Every dog has his day" and no longer will our ears be afflicted with the growling, snarling, snapping Rough Rider and the grotesque Teddy the picturesque Billy Possum.

Several of our exchanges continue to speak seriously of that banquet in San Antonio at which five hundred humming birds are to be served. The proposition is so absurd that they ought to know it was nothing but a joke, without the denial which was sent out.

THE PASTEUR INSTITUTE.

The Eagle Pilot man met Mr. G. B.
Abercrombie yesterday who has just returned from a trip to the Pasteur Institute at Austin where his wife is being treated for a bite by a mad cat.

Mr. Abercrombie said: "I think the state of Texas has many state institutions that the people should be very proud of, but I think there is no state institution half so important to the people of Texas as the Pasteur Institute because hydrophobia seems to be on the rapid increase and is death in every instance beyond any question when fully developed and because every person who goes to this institute within five or six days, or perhaps a little longer, after being bitten is cured when they obey instructions."

Mr. Abercrombie said: "Having a great personal interest I made a thorough investigation of the manner of treatment and the attention given patients by the physician in charge, Dr.
Willhite, and can truthfully say, Dr.
Willhite is an exceedingly patient, absolutely impartial, is diligent, honest, and competent."

This institution should be liberally provided for by the State."

Miss Ida Shepard Marries in Beaumont

The following taken from the Beaumont paper, interests many in this city:

An event of great interest to a very large circle of friends during the past week was the marriage of Miss Ida Holland Shepard to Mr. Emile August Barrier of Boston, Mass., which was celebrated Saturday morning at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ida H. Shepard, on Keith street, in the presence of the relatives and closest friends. The rooms were very beautifully arranged with palms and ferns and exquisite bouquets of bridesmaid roses. The ceremony was appointed for 8 o'clock, the bridal couple entering at that hour to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. B. E. Newcomb. There were no attendants, the bride entering on the arm of the groom.

The bride was gowned in a handsome going-away suit of catawba shade with exquisite Irish point lace waist. With this was worn a rustic straw hat to correspond with the ec-stume, swept by a large, black willow plume, held in place with a jet buckle.

An arm bouquet of bride's roses caught together with broad band of satin ribbons, was carried. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Moore of the First Methodist church.

The dining room table was covered with a cluny lace cover, to the center of which was a cut crystal rose bowl filled with bridesmaid roses. Here the bridal cake was cut.

Mr. and Mrs. Barrier left on the east bound train for New Orleans to attend Mardi Gras, and from there will visit Mr. Barrier's relatives in Boston before going to their new home at Pittsburg, Pa.

Bryan's Beautiful Show Windows.

It is indeed a treat to walk over the city and take a peep at Bryan's elegant show windows. When we say elegant, it is not overdrawn, for they cannot be surpassed in any of the cities, and towns the size of Bryan are so badly distanced they are not in the running. Every line of goods is represented and they are as up-to-date and full of style as those seen anywhere. The Eagle reporter on his rounds Monday was particularly struck with Coulter's Gents Furnishings window. It is simply elegant. Everything for the man of fashion is on display and they are as well as any shown in Houston or Dallas. It is particularly noticeable the difference in Coulter's Gents Furnishings department carried now and the stock carried a few years ago. There has been a complete revolution, and the young man who wishes to be dressed so that he knows he's right, should not fail to take a look through Coulter's.

St. Luke's Day.

Yesterday was St. Luke's Day and was observed as a religious festival by the large Italian colony in Brazos county, several hundred of whom attended the services at St. Anthony's Catholic church in this city. Father DeSimone, the pastor in charge conducted the services, which were beautiful and impressive.

The reporter of the Eagle noted carefully and with pleasure the great improvement in these our foreign citizens, made during the past few years.
Then they nearly all dressed in the costume peculiar to their native land and spoke the Italian tongue altogether. Now they dress almost the same as our citizens, and speak English well. This is true particularly of the younger generation. They speak English not only when talking to the natives, but when talking among themselves. They are gradually becoming Americanized and in just a few years the National lines will almost, if not completely, disappear.

To Set Patrick Free.

Special to Bryan Morning Eagle.
New York, March 1.—Another step in the interminable fight to free Lawyer Albert T. Patrick, now serving a commuted sentence of life imprisonment to Sing Sing for the murder of William Marsh Rice, an aged Texas millionaire, was taken up today when an application for a writ of habeas corpus came up for argument before the full Appellate Division. Counsel for Patrick asked for the writ on the ground that the commutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment by the late Gov. Higgins was not warranted, in that it was a change to a punishment not provided by statute for the crime for which Patrick was convicted, and that the change was to the prisoner's disadvantage, in that it was an imposition of a different and greater punishment.

Dalton's Experiment.

The English chemist Dalton was a schoolteacher. He worked without a laboratory and with crude apparatus, mostly made by himself from simple materials. Here is an example described in his own words:

"Took an ale glass of a conical figure, two and a half inches in diameter and three inches deep; filled it with water that had been standing in the room and consequently of the temperature of the air nearly; put the bulb of the thermometer to the bottom of the glass, the scale being out of the water.
Then, having marked the temperature, I put the redhot tip of the poker half an inch deep in the water, holding it there steadily for half a minute, and as soon as it was withdrawn I dipped the bulb of a sensible thermometer into the water, when it rose in a few seconds to 180 degrees."

He then determined the temperature of the water at the bottom after five minutes, after twenty minutes and after an hour and found that it rose gradually from 47 to 52 degrees. This simple experiment proved that water has the power to conduct heat, which had been denied by no less an authority than Rumford.—Youth's Companion.

The Mistake He Made.

He sauntered into the central police station and approached the desk sergeant. There was a careworn look on his face. He stood there a moment as if in reverie. Finally as tears coursed down his cheeks he timidly said:

"I want to give myself up."
"What have you done that you should seek a felon's cell?" the sergeant asked.

"I have long been a fugitive from justice. The welfare of society demands that I should be punished."
"But what is it? What heinous offense have you committed?"

"I am a bigamist—yes, a polygamist —and I don't dare think what worse.
No longer must I keep it from the world. Lock me up. I am ready to do penance."

"But will you not explain?"

"Yes, if you insist. I thought I married only the daughter, but I have found, to my sorrow, that the whole family was included."—Kansas City Independent

Won With Whips.

According to Herodotus, while the Scythians were away on a long campaign their slaves took the opportunity to rebel and seize all their masters' property. The latter on their return promptly attacked them, but were continually defeated until at last one of them hit on the brilliant idea of attacking the slaves with whips only.
That, he said, would remind them of their origin and so cow them that they would never dare to stand. The Scythians followed his counsel, and it fell out as he had predicted. When the slaves beheld their masters riding down upon them flourishing the terrible knotted whips they knew so well they threw down their arms and fled.

Didn't Take the Bait.

Miss Anciente (insinuatingly)—I dislike my name; it's horrid. Mr. Fly (absently)—I fear it's too late to change it now.

Relief from catarrh, coughs, colds, be had in five minutes simply by breathing the soothing, healing, bal-

It acts like magic. When you breathe Hyomei you bring the air from the all diseases of the nose, throat and lungs are unknown in inland Aus-
